Education

Sep 2003 - March 2015

79 SOU “Indira Gandhi”- High school

Although I couldn't pursue university at the time, my passion for mathematics and technology has always driven me to continuously self-educate through courses, books, and professional projects.

Personal Statement

I approach every project with the same excitement I felt when I first saw “Hello World” appear in a browser. I enjoy tackling complex challenges, adapt quickly to new technologies, and stay motivated even in fast-paced environments. I'm confident in my skills while maintaining a realistic self-assessment, and I continuously learn by diving head-first into new challenges.
